

IcedTeas

Long Island Iced Tea 9.50

The ultimate cocktail. Vodka, Gin, White Rum, Tequila Silver and Cointreau shaken with lime juice and a dash of Angostura bitters built over a splash of coke.

Boston Iced Tea 9.50

A distant relative of the Long Island Iced Tea. It's like a Long Island but it has a hint of coffee which is great if you're a coffee lover, albeit slightly ironic for the name...

Tokyo Iced Tea 9.50

Tokyo Ice Tea cocktail recipe sounds a lot like the Long Island Iced Tea at first, and not just because of the name. Gin, vodka, rum, tequila - it's a white liquor extravaganza. But after that, the similarity ends. The Tokyo Iced Tea adds sprite instead of coke, and Midori instead of Cointreau.

The Long Beach Iced Tea 9.50

Is a cousin to the Long Island Iced Tea, substituting cranberry juice for the cola. That makes for a very refreshing, somewhat tangy drink that can perk you up after a long day.

The Piano Bar

Hello You!
DRINKS&COCKTAILS

Classic Cocktails

Bramble 8.50

A modern Gin classic created by London bartender Dick Bradsell in the mid 89s. We mix Gordon's Gin, lemon juice and syrup before capping with ice and floating Crème de Mure.

Cosmopolitan 8.50

This "Sex in the City" favourite of Absolut Citron Vodka, Cointreau and cranberry with freshly squeezed lime juice is served in a cool martini glass.

Margarita 8.50

This popular mix of sharp citrus, sweet orange flavour and the warmth of strong spirit is created by shaking Cointreau, Jose Cuervo Gold Tequila and Agave Nectar, infused with the tang of freshly squeezed lime.

Singapore Sling 8.50

This world famous cocktail based on the Raffles' Hotel recipe is made up of cherry brandy, Cointreau, pineapple juice, Gin & grenadine to create a long, fruity beverage shaken with Angostura bitters and Bénédictine for a herbal kick.

Strawberry Daiquiri 8.50

Fruity and refreshing blend of strawberries, White Run, Fraise des Bois with a hint of lime and cane sugar. Mr Jennings Cos, an American mining engineer who was working at a Cuban copper mine outside Santiago, created the daiquiri in 1896

Old Fashioned 8.50

Arguably the world's oldest cocktail. Deceptively simple blend of Bourbon Whisky, sugar and bitters and a must for any lover of dark spirits seeking perfection in a glass.

Gimlet 8.50

Deliciously sweet and sour, the Gimlet is simply a mix of Gin, lime cordial and lime juice. Created in 1747 by British Royal Navy surgeon James Lind as a remedy for avoiding scurvy.

Moscow Mule 8.50

Citrusy with a zingy kick. Smirnoff vodka with lime juice, topped with ginger beer.

Espresso Martini 8.50

Our espresso martini is even better than dessert, drinking 'til the small hours it keeps you alert and energised with the caffeine kick from a fresh espresso shaken over ice with Smirnoff Vodka, Kahlua and sugar syrup.

Comfortable 8.50

Very unusual mix of Southern Comfort, Disaronna, cranberry juice and lime topped up with Red Bull gives you a powerful cocktail but with a smooth taste.

Mojito 8.50

A delightfully refreshingly long drink. Hints of mint with a healthy dose of Rum, made slightly more sensible with a dash of soda water.

From Dusk Till Dawn 8.50

Destined to become a cult classic much like its movie namesake? This delicious combination of Blavod Black Vodka, Midori, passion juice and grenadine is sure to remind you just how sexy Salma Hayek was as Santánico Pandemonium.

Mai Tai 8.50

Translates from Tahitian to mean "Out of this World" and it is a fitting description for this very fun rum cocktail. Mix of white rum, dark rum, Cointreau, orgeat, pineapple juice and few drops of granadine will prove you that is the right name for this cocktail.

Negroni 8.50

Italian classic...This is such a classic in fact, that it's practically a staple for most Italians. It's dry and bitter thanks to Gin, Campari and Martini Rosso, so if you have a sweet tooth, it's probably not for you. Otherwise, it makes a fantastic pre-dinner cocktail!

Pina Colada 8.50

First made in Puerto Rico back in 1952, with this Rum, Malibu, pineapple juice, coconut syrup and cream cocktail in your hand all you'll be missing is the sand between your toes.

Godfather 8.50

A drink that commands respect. Created during the 70's in the USA, the Godfather was the favoured cocktail of Marlon Brando and serves up a kingly blend of Disaronno and Scotch whisky.

Lynchburg Lemonade 8.50

Named after the hometown of the Jack Daniels distillery, this refreshing mix of whiskey, Cointreau, lemon juice, gomme syrup, topped with lemonade - its only for grown-ups.

Porn Star Martini 8.50

It's an absolute modern classic which was invented by Douglas Ankrah of LAB bar and has since been adopted by many bars across the globe. The sweet vanilla syrup, Vodka and Passoa flavours are balanced by the sharpness of the passion fruit and is complemented by a shot of Prosecco which again gives a different experience of fizzy and dry. Bottom line: if you haven't tried this yet, WHY NOT?!

June Bug 8.50

Beautiful taste of summer any time of year in a glass. Tropical blend of Midori, Malibu, banana liquor, pineapple juice and lime.

Champagne Cocktails

Bellini 12.50

A delicious blend of peach purée and Moët Champagne.

Champagne Cosmo 12.50

Elegant twist on one of the favourite classic cocktails. Cointreau shaken with cranberry juice and a dash of fresh lime juice, topped with Moët Champagne.

Kir Royal 12.50

A lovely way to add a little bit of flush to your Champagne and a great little cocktail for a celebration. A truly classic mixture of blackcurrant and bubbles with layered Crème de Cassis and Moët Champagne.

Champagne Cocktail 12.50

Champagne's naughtier side. A cube of sugar soaked with a dash of bitters dropped into a shot of Cognac and topped with Moët Champagne.

Rossini 12.50

This gorgeous red bellini uses strawberries instead of peaches

Grand Mimosa 12.50

This elegant, citrusy and fresh flute of Cointreau, orange juice and Moët Champagne was created in 1925 at the Ritz Hotel.

Innocent Cocktails

Pink Dream 4.95

Cranberry and orange juice mixed with bitter lemon gives you an edgy cocktail that's a sweet and sour mouthful

Royal Shirley Temple 4.95

This is a classic mocktail for all those saints out there... Orange juice and grenadine topped with lemonade in an interestingly layered soft drink sensation.

Innocent Passion 4.95

The tropical taste of passion juice combined with cranberry juice and lime topped with soda water.
